

Town Planning Board stated the Supervisor. It was believed that as the proposed buyer you might be able to make the application with the approval of the owner with contingency of these changes stated Councilman Gritsavage. Discussion ensued on two possible procedures (a right to get a variance) proceed with the Planning Board with your variance to be reviewed, if they think its valid it will be sent to the Zoning Board of Appeals. It would be reviewed by the ZBA and they can either deny or grant you that variance.
